

How do spouses of clergy not only survive, but thrive in their parishes? Join with Christos as we answer this and other crucial questions for clergy spouses. In the process, we will form bonds with each other that will strengthen and cheer us all.

Healthy Connections for Clergy Spouses

Come to me all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

You have the opportunity to share your wisdom, and learn from other clergy spouses the attitudes and skills required to be fulfilled "right where you're planted." Through this program spouses will collaborate with Christos staff and work through 12 months' of discussion guides on critical topics for pastors' families. Teams of 2-3 spouses will meet at least monthly for sharing and support and then pass on their experience and discoveries. Imagine what we will have to pass along to others at the end of the year.
